

Gyta53-144b optical cable price

AI Overview

The GYTA53-144B fiber optic cable typically ranges from $1.50 to $3.50 per meter, depending on supplier, quantity, and customization options.

Overview The GYTA53-144B is a 144-core, double-armored, direct-buried fiber optic cable designed for outdoor and underground installations. It features gel-filled PBT loose tubes, a phosphatized steel wire central strength member, and a polyethylene (PE) outer sheath for protection against mechanical stress, moisture, and environmental hazards. This cable is suitable for harsh environments, including long-distance backbone networks, telecom infrastructure, and industrial or municipal applications.

Price Range Alibaba listings indicate that GYTA53 cables, including 144-core variants, are available at factory prices, which typically range from $1.50 to $3.50 per meter, depending on order volume, fiber type (single-mode or multimode), and additional features like custom branding or packaging. Supplier websites such as ME Fiber Optic and GL Fiber provide direct-buried, armored 144-core GYTA53 cables with OEM support, suggesting that bulk orders may reduce the per-meter cost.

Key Features

- Fiber Count: 144 cores, available in single-mode or multimode
- Construction: Double steel tape and aluminum tape armoring, gel-filled loose tubes, PE outer sheath
- Durability: Resistant to rodent damage, mechanical stress, and water ingress
- Standards Compliance: IEC 60794-4, IEC 60793, TIA/EIA 598 A, YD/T 901-2009
- Applications: Outdoor telecom networks, campus networks, industrial and municipal fiber deployments
- Additional Considerations Prices may vary based on shipping, local taxes, and import duties. Some suppliers offer custom packaging, labeling, and OEM branding, which can affect the final cost. For small-scale testing, suppliers often provide sample reels to verify quality before bulk purchase. For accurate pricing, it is recommended to contact suppliers directly with your required length, fiber type, and any customization needs to obtain a precise quote.
