

Reseller of Carrier-Grade Router SFP

AI Overview

Pulse Supply, FS, Wolon, and Cisco-certified partners are key resellers and distributors of carrier-grade SFP routers and transceivers. Key Resellers and Distributors Pulse Supply is a major North American distributor specializing in telecommunications and WAN equipment. They provide carrier-grade routers, industrial wireless routers, and SFP modules for service providers, utilities, government, and enterprise networks. Pulse Supply supports legacy TDM connections, Ethernet, and LTE-based networks, offering technical support, project management, and custom-tailored solutions for large-scale deployments (Pulse Supply). FS (Fiberstore) offers a wide range of SFP, SFP28, SFP56, and QSFP28 transceivers supporting distances from 30m to 160km over single-mode and multi-mode fiber. FS provides cost-effective, low-power modules suitable for enterprise and carrier networks, with nearby warehouse shipping and a 30-day return policy (FS). Wolon manufactures and resells carrier-grade SFP/SFP+/QSFP modules and MPO cabling. They emphasize compatibility with Cisco, Juniper, and Arista equipment, configurable DOM reporting, and small-lot production for pilot sites. Wolon is suitable for telco and ISP projects requiring long-term supply, high reliability, and flexible customization (Wolontek). Cisco-Certified Partners can be located using Cisco's Partner Locator tool. These partners are authorized resellers and integrators of Cisco carrier-grade routers and SFP modules, providing certified solutions, technical support, and regional availability (Cisco Partner Locator). Considerations for Procurement Compatibility: Ensure SFP modules are compatible with your router and switch hardware (Cisco, Juniper, Arista, etc.). Reliability: Look for extended MTBF, temperature range support, and DOM/DFE features. Support & Warranty: Verify RMA policies, field support, and multi-year supply commitments. Lead Times & Pricing: Consider total cost of ownership, including logistics, spares, and multi-year pricing r...
