

Southeast Asian Smart Building Distribution Box Manufacturer

AI Overview

Key manufacturers in Southeast Asia include GEYA, Hangyue Intelligent, and Asiatic Group, offering advanced smart distribution boxes for commercial, residential, and industrial applications. Leading Manufacturers GEYA is a prominent manufacturer and supplier of distribution boxes, miniature circuit breakers, DC surge protectors, and smart electricity meters. Their products are designed for residential solar systems and industrial applications, featuring IP65 protection, flame-retardant ABS materials, and compliance with UL, CSA, TUV, and CE standards. GEYA emphasizes in-house production, quality testing, and customization to meet client-specific requirements, making it a reliable choice for smart building projects in Southeast Asia. Hangyue Intelligent specializes in intelligent distribution boxes that integrate big data, cloud computing, and mobile internet technologies. Their SIBOARD and HangyueHZMX series provide intelligent load management, real-time monitoring of voltage, current, power, leakage, and environmental conditions, and support smart park and factory energy management. These products comply with GB7251.2 and IEC61439.1/2 standards and are widely used in factories, commercial buildings, hospitals, schools, data centers, and renewable energy systems. Asiatic Group in Singapore distributes high-quality enclosures and distribution boxes from HENSEL, designed for harsh environmental conditions. Their products offer IP65 to IP67 protection, UV resistance, corrosion resistance, and flame-retardant properties. HENSEL distribution boards and junction boxes are suitable for low-voltage applications in smart buildings, ensuring safe and reliable energy distribution.
